X and Y are two different numbers selected from the first fifty counting numbers from 1 to 50 inclusive.

What is the largest value that $\dfrac{X + Y}{X - Y}$ can have?